

Technology Education Association of Illinois Awards Nomination

The TEAI Awards Program is TEAI's way of saying thank you to Technology Education professionals throughout Illinois who annually devote time, energy, and sometimes finances to build a strong and exciting technology education curriculum. Take the time to nominate a deserving candidate for one of the TEAI awards. Written letters of recommendation, including email, should be completed and sent to:

William Merchantz
Homewood-Flossmoor High School
999 Kedzie Avenue
Flossmoor, IL 60422
708.335.5671
wmerchantz@hf233.org

Description of the TEAI/ITEEA Awards

TEAI/ITEEA Teacher of the Year-----(award at the Elementary, Middle School, and High School levels)

Purpose: This award is an acknowledgment of an outstanding technology teacher who keeps abreast of developments in technology education and uses this knowledge to constantly upgrade classroom curriculum or activities. This individual is also active in professional organizations, and maintains a positive rapport with students, faculty, administration, and the industrial community. Eligible teachers must have completed at least 5 years of teaching experience.

TEAI/ITEEA Program of the Year-----(award at the Elementary, Middle School, and High School levels)

Purpose: This award is an acknowledgment of a superior technology education program which provides fundamental knowledge about the development of technology, its effect on people, the environment and culture, and draws its instructional contents from one or more of the following systems: communication, energy utilization, production/manufacturing, and transportation.

TEAI Administrator of the Year

Purpose: This award is an acknowledgment of an outstanding administrator of technology education who has given years of service to his/her profession by contributing publications, presentations, and leadership at the local, state, and national levels.

TEAI Technology Education New Teacher of the Year Award

Purpose: This award is an acknowledgment of an outstanding "new" teacher who is providing his/her students the most current curriculum available and staying professionally active so personal growth continues. Eligible teachers must have no more than 5 years of teaching experience to be considered for this award.